

Civic Readiness for All Students

Civic Readiness is the ability to make a positive difference in the public life of our communities through the combination of civic knowledge, skills and actions, mindsets, and experiences.

What is Civics? The study of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship.

Who are Civic Ready students?

Students who use civic knowledge, skills and mindsets to make decisions and take actions for themselves, their communities, and the public good.

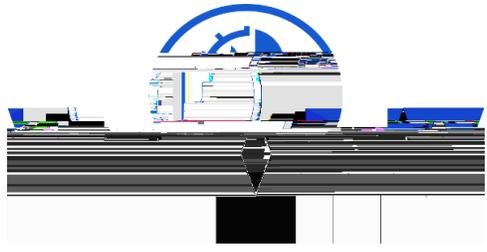

What is a community?

A group of people who live in the same place and share common interests, values, and goals. A community can be as small as a neighborhood or as large as a country. Communities are formed by people who live together and work together to solve problems and improve their lives.

Communities are important because they provide a sense of belonging and support. They also help people learn about their rights and responsibilities as citizens. Civic readiness is the ability to participate in the public life of our communities and to make a positive difference.

Civic Readiness is:

- Knowledge of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship
- Skills to participate in the public life of our communities
